

Competition Changes for IFBB Physique America in 2022

Listed are the changes for competitions in 2022 that was approved by the IFBB Physique America Executive Council in August 2021.

The changes will be incorporated into the Promoters Guidelines and the Competition Rules for 2022.

As been our policy since our inception, we will continue to not charge a sanction fee.

FEDERATION CHAMPIONSHIP 2022

1. The IFBB Physique America Federation Championships will be established and will be our final show of the year either last week in October or first/second week in November, in Florida.
2. No show will be held after the Federation Championship in each calendar year.
3. All competitions must be held a minimum of two weeks before the Federation Championships in order to coordinate airline tickets and hotel rooms.

CONSOLIDATION OF DIVISIONS

There will be a consolidation of two divisions for 2022 events.

- A. Women's Physique and Women's Figure will now be combined. New division name: Women's Figure/Physique. Rules will be adjusted.
- B. Men's Classic Bodybuilding and Men's Classic Physique will now be combined. New division name: Men's Classic Bodybuilding/Physique. Rules will be adjusted.
- C. The Promoter will have the option of adding novice and/or masters categories to the open category.
- D. Men's and Women's Fit Model divisions will be retained since they provide many crossover athletes that add revenue for the Promoter.

MEMBERSHIPS

There will no longer be a mandatory number of new memberships per show.

ATHLETE SPONSORSHIPS

With regards to the sponsoring of athletes from a local competition, the changes will be as follows:

- A. The Promoter will pay for two airline tickets for two athletes from their show to the Federation Championship.
- B. The Federation will pay for three nights in the hotel.
- C. The athlete will pay the Entry Fees.

GRAPHIC ADS

- A. With regards to graphic ads, Promoters will have direct access to my designer for their posters or they can use their own designer.
- B. Posters will have to be of a certain standard and approved before they can be posted.
- C. Starting in 2022 poster design will be the Promoters financial responsibility.

DRUG TESTING

With regards to Drug Testing, the Promoter will provide certified urine collectors and pay their fee. The Federation will pay for the testing at the lab.

SCHEDULE FOR 2022

The 2022 schedule must be in place by late November.
