Physique America

appoints

Brent Jones

Chairman/Director of Kentucky

Recently resigned NPC Promoter, Brent Jones, has been appointed Chairman/Director of the State of Kentucky for Physique America. Brent will assume the position immediately.

Brent has promoted shows in Kentucky for the NPC and the Pro League since 2002. Among his events were the Kentucky Muscle Championship and the highly successful Kentucky Derby Festival Championships which was run during Kentucky Derby week as part of the prestigious horse racing festival.

Recently, Brent decided to resign from the NPC and the Pro League. He sent a mass email with the subject line, “Why I resigned from the NPC and the IFBB Pro League,” saying that he resigned Oct. 17, a week before The Washington Post published its investigation, over many of the issues covered in the story. “My reasons are simple,” he wrote in a mass email, “I am tired of the increased sexualization of the sport and the corruption.”

Physique America welcomes a Promoter of such high ethics and integrity to its Federation and is honored to have Brent Jones accept the position of Chairman/Director of the State of Kentucky. To contact Brent about competing or being involved in Physique America Kentucky, he can be reached at www.kentuckymuscle.com or @kentuckymuscle.
