IFBB Physique America is proud to announce the appointment of Waylon Martin as Chairman of Arizona. “Waylon is a person with the passion, desire and enthusiasm for the sport that IFBB Physique America is thrilled and excited to have part of our team” states IFBB Physique America CEO/President Wayne S. DeMilia.

Waylon Martin is an Arizona native, currently living in Tucson and a former bodybuilding competitor. He started competing as a teen while attending the University of Arizona and now has over a decade in the physique industry. Following his competitive career, he transitioned into bodybuilding media production as well as personal training and contest prep to help athletes achieve their physical goals. His business grew to include online prep and consultation. He not only competed in multiple federations but also has assisted in the production of numerous events throughout the state of Arizona.

“I am excited to be part of IFBB Physique America and to give athletes additional opportunities within Arizona and beyond” exclaims Waylon. “My goal is to build our competitions to be the best in the USA.”

With this level fervor and passion, Waylon will achieve his goals. Welcome to The Team!
