

IFBB Physique America names ERIC SCOTT Chairman of Wisconsin

“We are blissful with exhilaration and elation by the appointment of Eric Scott to the position of IFBB Physique America Wisconsin Chairman” illuminates and elucidates IFBBPA Executive Director JV Calascione. “Having such an archetypal Champion join our team in an executive position again exemplifies the goals of the most progressive Federation in the sport.”

Eric Scott has had an impressive competition history that spans over 13 years, which includes 14 amateur and professional shows, comprising of 3 overall titles since 2005. Most recently, Eric began competing in IFBB Classic Bodybuilding, and in 2017 was invited to and competed in the IFBB Arnold Classic Ohio (where he placed 5th), Arnold Classic South Africa (where he placed 4th) and Arnold Classic Europe in Barcelona. In addition to his incomparable success as a competitor, Eric has also been a head judge for six different professional and amateur federations since 2011 in shows across the US.

“Week by week, state by state, girder by girder, IFBB Physique America is building a Federation foundation with people of veracity, intelligence and integrity. Eric Scott is a perfect piece that complements our criteria, standards and principals” states IFBB Physique America Assistant to the President, James T. Rockell.
